The editor, Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, calls it "an all-around-the-world year," because it is to contain a great number of stories and papers about the world in general. Of course the bulk of the contents, as heretofore, will relate to American subjects; but young America is always glad to learn what goes on in the world outside, and these stories and descriptive papers are not of the dry geographical order, and they will be strikingly illustrated by the best artists. We have space here for only a few of the most prominent announcements. Girls in China," and "Some of John Chinaman's Inventions" are described. Mrs. Holman Hunt will contribute a series on Home Life in the East; and there will be papers on Siam, several on Japan, including "Ten Weeks in Ja-pan" and "Seeing the Real Mikado,"
